News notes of local interest

A $349 billion federal budget for July 1975-June 1976, outlined Saturday by Pres. Gerald Ford, shows a $52 billion deficit, or possibly $70 billion unless Congress enacts spending cuts he is proposing.

With a $1-a-barrel tax added beginning two days ago on foreign crude oil brought into the U.S., it remains uncertain how big the impact will be and how soon consumers will be affected. Most estimates are that retail gasoline price changes are inevitable by mid-March.

Americans 65 and older increased between July 1973 and July 1974 by 486,000 to 21,800,000 persons, or 10.3 percent of the population. Children five and younger decreased 404,000 to 16,300,000. The 16-year age group grew from 57.3 to 57.9 per cent.

The Army Engineer Corps has filed a motion to dismiss a lawsuit that is delaying replacement of the Alton locks and dam.

Some members of the Illinois Energy Resources Commission at their first meeting Thursday objected to conditional approval of $10 million in state bond money for a pilot plant for converting coal to electricity at Wood River. The project had been proposed Wednesday by Gov. Dan Walker, and its future is in doubt.

Bicentennial—the way it was

Feb. 3—Abigail Adams wrote, "Yesterday brought us such a speech from the throne as will stain with everlasting infamy the reign of George III."

Feb. 4—Richard Henry Lee told Samuel Adams that Virginians were unanimous, firm and zealous in their support of the American cause with few exceptions.

Feb. 5, 1775—Benjamin Franklin wrote from London: "Our country will at last be convinced that petitions are odious here" and suggested avoiding British goods.

Public support is asked by Walker

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Governor Dan Walker on Friday appealed to 125 area governmental, business and civic leaders to urge their legislators to support his proposed $4.5 billion spending program. Walker has proposed a $4.1 billion program to increase employment by using state bond funds to widen and resurface roads and bridges.

construct new public buildings, expand pollution control efforts, and spur construction of new homes, apartments and other projects.

His plan also would result in expenditure of $400 million in local and federal matching funds, bringing the total to $4.5 billion.

Gov. Walker said criticism of the plan by legislators, newspapers and others is failing to mention that "a certain percentage comes back with sales tax and income tax."

"We estimate $10 million to $20 million will come back to the state treasury."

He cited increasing unemployment in the state, saying it is close to 6 per cent statewide and is much higher in many areas, such as St. Clair County.

A program to put people back to work is needed immediately, the luncheon gathering was told.

"This is not a program like the old programs just to put people to work. These will be projects which are needed and which will improve the quality of life for the people in Illinois," he said.

The governor said the plan included widening and resurfacing of 1,300 miles of dangerous roads, replacing hundreds of bridges, building new schools, homes and apartments, rehabilitating mental and correctional institutions, renovating Amtrak and commuter railroad stations, building three new state parks, additional airport construction, higher grants for private colleges and other programs.

He said $2 billion is to go into construction work with about half in general obligation bonds for schools and public facilities and the other half in revenue bonds for other construction, including industrial development.

The work would be done by private contractors, he added. "What we are doing, in effect, is to lend the state's tax-exempt status to developers," he commented in explaining the bonding proposals.

The governor's visit to the Round Table Restaurant was announced less than 24 hours before his arrival. He apologized for the short notice and for being about a half-hour late in arriving.

The event apparently was planned for about 50 persons and hectic last-minute preparations had to be made as the crowd more than doubled the expected number.

Numerous officials had to wait more than an hour for lunch as the supply of food ran short.

The governor was introduced by Mayor Lewis Krause of Collinsville, who cited recent criticism of spending proposals and challenged "anyone with a better program to come up with it."

BOAT, MOTOR STOLEN
Clarence Norman, Rural Route One, Box 485, Granite City reported to the Madison County Sheriff's department at 10:20 a.m. Saturday his boat, 16.5 horsepower motor and trailer, valued at $8,000, were stolen.

Persons playing tennis in the park nearby said they saw three men run east through the park after the robbery.

The three youths were described as 15 to 17 years of age, about 6 feet tall and both wearing blue denim pants. The one with the knife wore gloves and a red jacket. The other wore a red school letterman's jacket and a stocking cap.

The third youth who fled with the robbers was described as shorter than the other two.

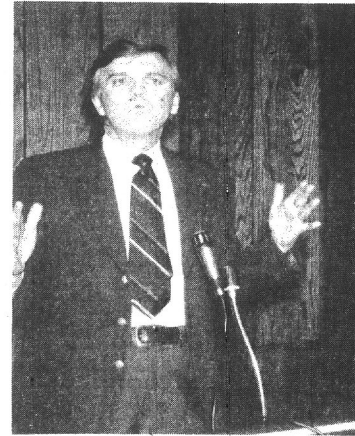

Crimes at 2 schools
Burglars stole a small amount of cash during a break-in at Lake School, East 23rd Street and Edwardsville Road, which was reported at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Entry was gained by breaking and opening a rear window into room 144. A soft drink vending machine in the teachers' lounge was broken open and about $15 was stolen.

The door to the principal's office was pried open and about $9 cash, some keys and a few postage stamps were stolen. Some of the keys were found left in classrooms doors.

School officials were to notify police today if anything else was missing.

Forty minutes after being notified of the Lake School burglary, police were notified that two boys, about 9 years of age, were seen breaking 14 windows at Wilson School, 2400 Wilson Ave.

EXPLAINING PROPOSALS for improving the economy through state spending Friday was Gov. Dan Walker, who is attempting to develop grassroots support for his program. Walker spoke at a meeting of governmental, business and civic leaders in Collinsville. To the right of Walker is State Sen. Sam Vadalabene, Democrat of Edwardsville. (Press-Record Photo)

Road, park speed-ups

Governor Daniel Walker sees rapid acceleration of the Great River Road (Federal Aid Route 151) here if legislators approve his mammoth statewide construction program unveiled Jan. 22.

The program envisions $6 million to extend the highway from its present terminus at Nidderhage Avenue and the Granite City Air Installation.

The River Road is to be built southward toward the Broadway-Madison street area of Venice, and more of the project has been included in the next two years' work plan than otherwise would be possible, Transportation Department officials say.

It is proposed to develop Horseshoe Lake as a state park in two years instead of four years, and to construct a new visitors' center at nearby Cahokia Mounds State Park.

Legislation authorizing a $15 million civic center in the Madison-St. Clair Counties area has been certified as law by the governor following amendatory action. The construction project is to follow appointment of a 12-member governing board by Walker; the board will decide the site and other details.

Crash Sunday decapitates 2

A Washington Park man, who operated a painting business in the Quad-City area, and his woman passenger were decapitated when their auto struck the side of a semi-tractor trailer and passed beneath the truck body at the entrance to the Gateway Truck Stop on Route 203, south of Madison, at 1:55 p.m. Sunday.

Doyle Wilkerson, 49, of 1519 N. 49th St., Washington Park, and Jacqueline D. Feld, 46, of St. Louis, were pronounced dead at the scene by St. Clair County Coroner C. K. Cane.

Driver of the trailer truck, Richard L. Hines, 24, of Fayetteville, Ark., was not injured.

Illinois State Police said Hines was leaving the Gateway restaurant and crossing Route 203, preparing to go south, when the accident occurred.

Mr. Wilkerson's vehicle, traveling north on Route 203, struck the semi-trailer about 24 feet back of the truck's front bumper, passing underneath the tractor trailer section.

A native of Greenville, Mo., Mr. Wilkerson was self-employed as a house painter in Granite City.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Evelyn Wilkerson; one son, Doyle Wilkerson Jr., one stepchild, Harold Lee Wilson, Pamela Wilson and Tina Whitlock, all of Washington Park; three brothers, Jim Wilkerson, Florissant, Mo., Howard Wilkerson, Barnhart, Mo., and Willard P. Wilkerson, Silva, Mo.; and five sisters, Mrs. Helen Shoemaker, Silva, Mrs. Eunice Duffenne, St. Louis, Mrs. Mable Jackson, Puxico, Shots fired after theft

A young thief escaped despite gunfire after he stole a half-gallon of whiskey, valued at $21, from Smiling Joe's Liquors, Nantuxi Road and St. Clair Avenue at 4:20 p.m. Thursday.

Joe Postar, owner, said the young man, about 20 years of age, entered the store and inquired about the price of the half-gallon.

When she saw the man then approached the counter with the bottle, but ran out the door without paying for it.

Postar got a pistol he had nearby, ran out the door and fired about four shots, the bullets nearly striking an auto.

A witness said the thief ran to Myrtle Avenue, near St. Clair Avenue, where he entered a white 1965 Chevrolet and drove from the scene.

Liquor store owners in the Quad-City area had been warned that a group of shoplifters who concentrate on liquor stores may be operating in this area. Several incidents already had been reported here.

The clerk ransacked the front counter and took the money from the cash register before leaving.

The clerk removed a window in the bathroom and leaned out to yell for help. A passerby heard her unlocked the bathroom door and called police.

Collinsville men injured on I-270
A Collinsville man sustained possible head injuries and was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital following a one-car accident at 3:30 a.m. Sunday on Interstate 270, about three-fourths of a mile west of Route 203.

Illinois State troopers said an eastbound auto operated by Ronald Hall, 22, of Collinsville, apparently struck and glanced off a bridge abutment, traveled off the roadway to the left and struck the wall on the south side. The vehicle was facing west when it came to a halt.

The driver, who was unable to recall what occurred, was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was treated for a laceration of the left eyebrow and possible head injuries before being admitted.

Push for acquisition of new airport site

'Prudent to land-bank'

By CLAUDE S. BRINEGAR
Retiring U.S.
Secretary of Transportation

For some time, the Secretary of Transportation has had under study number of issues related to the question of the future development of a major new airport in the St. Louis area.

On the basis of material now available to me, I have concluded the following:

1. Because of recent downward revisions in the outlook for aviation growth in the St. Louis area, it appears that the present airport, Lambert Field, may be technically capable of serving the area's air carrier needs into the mid-1990s.

2. Because of this changed outlook, it will be necessary to make appropriate revisions in the preliminary Environmental Impact Statement that has been submitted in connection with the proposed new site near Waterloo, Ill.

It is my judgment that after these revisions, this site (a) will meet the necessary criteria for environmental acceptability but (b) will not be needed as soon as previously believed.

3. Because it is also my judgment that a new air carrier airport will one day be needed and Waterloo is the most likely location, I believe it would be prudent to "land-bank" that proposed site.

However, it is not now prudent to commit federal funds to start construction. Various studies now under way will provide additional information on this matter.

Efforts also will be made to seek formal ratification of the site and air-space clearance.

Lieutenant Governor Neil Hartigan urged Friday that "planning and construction" of the new airport proceed "to avoid the risk of a gap in acceptable service in the 1980s-90s period."

Establishment of the new airport would take about ten years, once started. Those who favor concentration on Lambert Airport in Missouri contend there is no urgency in starting to purchase a new site in Illinois.

Governor Daniel Walker said through Press Secretary Norton Kay that Secretary Claude S. Brinegar "begs the point by saying that a slowdown in air traffic is the answer to the needs of the area."

"The statement also comes at a time when unemployment is growing."

2 charged in robbery
Two Shiloh, Ill., men have been charged with armed robbery of the Three Square Construction Corp., 5 Gaslight Place, Pontoon Beach.

Changes with armed robbery are Dennis R. Boss, 23, and Robert Mueller, 17, both of 408 Cindy Lane, Shiloh. Boss was arrested Thursday in O'Fallon after his auto allegedly was seen leaving the area of the robbery and a description of the auto and license number was broadcast to area police departments. O'Fallon police stopped the car and took him into custody.

Mueller was reported to have turned himself into authorities at the O'Fallon Police Department at 4 p.m. Thursday.

The two are charged with entering the loan office, displaying a hunting knife and taking about $150 from a woman employee. It first was reported about $300 was taken but a check later revealed the amount was about half of that.

"Nevertheless, a legislative investigation was requested by our accusers."

"Actual construction on the new office building began on Feb. 6, 1974, and was substantially completed on April 26, 1974, when the Illinois Bureau of Employment Security took possession," they recalled.

Miss Sherry Graham and Richard Meyers are wed

An out-of-town wedding of interest here was that of Miss Sherry Graham, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Graham, 3001 Wintergreen Drive, Florissant, Mo., formerly of Granite City, and Richard Meyers of Hillsboro, Mo., taking place Jan. 31 at the Salem Methodist Church in Florissant.

Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Meyers, reside at 6551 January, Berkeley, Mo.

Hurricane lamps holding burning tapers illuminated the white carpeted aisle and bouquets of burgandy nuns and pink carnations decorated the altar. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Clark Leonard.

Miss Mary Dooley and Miss Barbara Knapp sang several selections prior to the arrival of the bridal party.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose an ornate gown of candlelight pastel sage with French lace motifs and featured a court train secured at the shoulders.

The long fitted sleeves, high rise bodice and Victorian collar were accented with French lace appliques, etched with tiny seed pearls.

She wore a lace Juliet cap to hold in place a mantilla veil, edged in matching lace, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, pink tea roses and baby's breath, festooned with candlelight satin ribbons.

The attendants wore gowns of burgandy chiffon velvet. The Empire bodices were enhanced with a softly flowing cape effect over the shoulders.

Each wore a burgandy picture hat and carried a velvet handbag with pale pink Sweetheart roses attached.

Miss Tina Gitchoff was maid of honor. The bridesmaids included Miss Kate Richards, Mrs. Charlene Sollers and Mrs. Sheila Sherman. The latter two are sisters of the bride.

The groom's father served as his best man, Kenneth J. Graham, the bride's brother, Robert Varnum and William Ide were groomsmen.

Ushers were Robert Sherman and Ira Sollers, the bride's brother-in-law.

A dinner reception was held at Stan and Biggie's Restaurant, and the rehearsal dinner was hosted at Angelo's Restaurant, both in St. Louis.

Mrs. Graham, mother of the bride, selected a formal length gown of bright pink Italian knit, featuring long sleeves and a mandarin neckline accented with jeweled buttons.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Meyers, was attired in a long pastel blue Italian knit gown, designed with a fitted bodice and complemented with a full length coat.

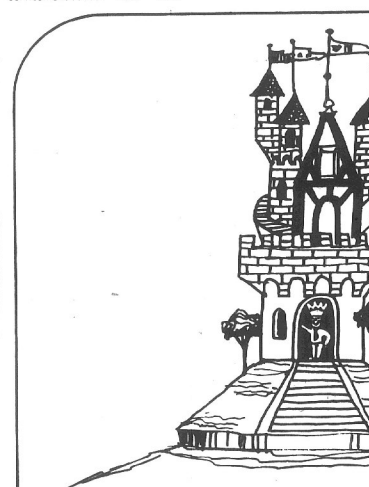

Both mothers wore silver accessories.

A graduate of Granite City High School, the former Miss Graham attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and William Woods College, Fulton, Mo. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority, Little Sister of Kappa Alpha Fraternity and is employed at Sheraton Reservations, St. Louis.

The groom graduated from Berkeley (Mo.) High School and SIUE, where he received a bachelor and master's degrees in art. He is employed at Jefferson College, Hillsboro, as a ceramics instructor and is a member of Craft Alliance Art Gallery.

The newlyweds are now residing in Hillsboro, Mo.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Cora Davis of Los Angeles, Calif.; Steve Hobson, Kansas City, Mo.; Walker Hall II, Tucson, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sherman of Chicago and Major and Mrs. William H. Johnson of O'Fallon.

South frosh finish third in tournament

The freshman cage Warriors of GCHS South pulled away from a first-period deadlock with O'Fallon to capture third-place honors Thursday in the second annual GCHS North frosh basketball tournament. The final score was a decisive 60-34.

Collinsville downed Edwardsville 84-49 in the tournament championship game Thursday. South and O'Fallon were tied 14-14 at the end of the opening period, but the Granite Cityans led 31-21 at halftime and 39-31 at the end of three quarters.

Scoring for the Warriors were: Tom Heinrich 25 points, Terry Angle 15, Jay Huebner and Greg Peigl six each, and two points each by Dan Manogian, Brian Meehan, Ed Barker and Barry Watson.

The tourney had opened last week with South defeating Belleville East 37-25. On Wednesday, Collinsville upended South 60-51 in a semifinal contest.

GCHS North drew a first-round bye and was eliminated from competition in being 61-40 to O'Fallon.

Win by 14-2 Cougars avenges earlier loss

It was sweet revenge Saturday night as the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville basketball team racked up Indiana University-Southeast 73-35 on the Wood River High School gym floor before a large and loud crowd of Cougar game fans.

It was Coach Jim Dudley's SIUE team's sixth victory in a row and ran the Cougar record to 14-2.

Since the victim Saturday of the Cougars was one of only two teams which have beaten SIUE this season, the victory was doubly sweet. In SIUE's second game of the season, on the road at New Albany, Ind., Southeast had taken advantage of 12 of 19 free throws (to the Cougars' one of three from the charity stripe) to rack up Dudley's Dandies, 84-75.

In that game, which was 14 points away, the Cougars hadn't been able to stop the Grenadiers' Joe Ledbetter and Rick Jackson. Ledbetter poured in 27 points (high for the game), while Jackson chipped in 24.

But as the Cougars' continued their winning streak on the prep

Oilers' floor, SIUE's defensive improvement since that Dec. 7 loss to Southeast was clear-cut and obvious to everyone. Dudley's defensive changes held Ledbetter to 10 points and Jackson to eight.

The Cougars' 14th victory, however, wasn't a cakewalk. In the first 14 minutes, the score was tied nine times, the last at 18-18.

At this point, Dudley called on his rescue group: Tommie Butler, Dutch Ferree and Wayne Heinrich. This trio gave starters Don Koppelman, John Strubberg and Vince Barnett a much-needed rest and in quick order Butler, Ferree, and Heinrich hit for baskets.

Also playing key roles were John Strubberg and Keith McFarland.

Strubberg, on his way to an 18-point total, hit five straight field goals in the first half. McFarland, eventually getting 26 points, tallied six of nine field goals attempts to help break open the game.

The Cougars will play Indiana State U.-Evansville Wednesday night at Edwardsville High.

Atton sharpshooters control rebounding to defeat Warriors

Field goal percentage was a determining factor Friday in Granite City High School South's 79-49 loss at Atton in a Southwestern Conference cage clash.

The conference leading Redbirds had a 55 per cent shooting average from the field, making 36 of 66 attempts. South hit on 18 of 53 shots for 34 per cent.

A 47-26 rebounding edge aided Atton immensely.

Paced by Ken Ramsey's 18 points, Atton led 20-15, 41-28 and 61-32 at the quarters and outscored South 18-17 in the final period.

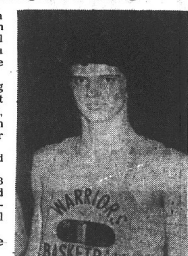

South held the edge at the free throw line, 13-7.

Earning points for the Warriors were Bob Hutchings with 19, Ken Bertrand 11, Tom Sweeney six, Jim Nolan and Rich Pancher four each, Dave Naglich three and Kirk Champion, two.

The Warriors now have an 0-17 conference record and are 1-17 overall.

Jones sparks MHS to 81-59 triumph; Trojan record 15-3

Roxana High School's loss was Madison's gain here Friday in an 81-59 Trojan victory.

Chris Schroeder, Roxana's leading pointmaker and rebounder, has been out with an ankle injury for the past two weeks. Aided by his absence, Madison dominated the boards, recovering 43 rebounds to Roxana's 23.

The Trojans also dominated the shooting, making 30 of 75 field goal attempts. Roxana hit 26 of 62 attempts.

MHS led 16-12, 35-23 and 60-37 at the quarters and was narrowly outscored by the Shells 22-21 in the final period.

Madison's Ron Jones, a 6-2 junior, provided the big points in the third period to give his team an insurmountable lead.

Jones got off to a relatively slow scoring start, with four points in each of the first two quarters, but put six field goals through the net in the third period.

He added six more points in the final period for a game total of 25.

From the foul line, Madison was five of nine and Roxana seven of 12.

Roxana committed the fewest fouls, 9-13, but was guilty of the most turnovers, 16-10.

The victory boosted Madison's homecourt winning streak to seven during the 1974-75 season, and its overall record to 15-3.

Roxana now has a 9-8 record. Three Roxana players scored in double figures: Ken McVey 16, Bob Brown 14 and Chris Mitchell 12.

Other than the 26 points by Jones, Madison's scoring was by Rudolph Bradley 18, Curtis Bradley 10, Darryl Franklin eight, Mike Williams six, Leroy Booker five and Emmett Timmons and Evan Dandridge, four points apiece.

South High wins 6 of 12 mat bouts to outscore North 28-15

TEMPORARY NORTH EDGE is held here by Steeler Todd Davis (top) in a 119-pound bout Friday with GCHS South's Kevin Page. Page emerged victorious with a 9-0 decision.

"I felt the matches were pretty well controlled until we got into the middle weight classes," recalls Steeler mentor Walt Whitaker after GCHS North bowed 28-15 here Friday to GCHS South.

After capturing the first four bouts, South gave way to the Steelers in three weight classes and wrestled North to deadlocks in two others. But two Warrior wins and a third draw preserved the host South team's lead.

Steeler Terry Johnson and Warrior Don Hasty wrestled to a 5-5 tie in a 138-pound bout, and North's Dave Whitsell and South's Brian Gaines ended their 145-pound bout in a 6-6 draw.

South held a 17-13 margin going into the 167-pound bout between undefeated Warrior Brian Wilson and Steeler Jim Stanton.

Wilson provided the only pin of the meet when he put Stanton's shoulders to the mat in two minutes and 11 seconds. The win earned the Warriors six big points and stretched their lead to 23-13 with two bouts remaining.

North needed a pin and a superior decision in the final two classes to tie South at 23-23; or, two Steeler pins would have given North a close win.

"We failed to pick up points in one match and wrestled to a draw in the other," summarized Whitaker. "After the 185-pound match, it was just a matter of congratulating Coach Bill Schmitt."

"The bouts North won Friday," Schmitt said, "were very close. Other bouts also were extremely close."

An example was the 145-pound match where Steeler Warrior Gaines led Steeler Whitsell, but a false start penalty against Gaines deadlocked the bout. "We had a few athletes wrestling with the flu and injuries," noted Schmitt. Wilson, at 167, was suffering with the flu, but got out of bed to compete.

And 185-pound Jerry Patterson won despite a nagging injury to his leg, the coach noted.

"I think we surprised a lot of people when we beat North," concluded Schmitt. "The Steelers were coming along very fast, and I believe many people thought they could defeat us."

The coaches agreed that the competition was fierce and that each squad won considerable respect with its performance.

The results: 98 pounds — Jim Caschetta (South) defeated Keith Whelan (North) 4-2; 105 — Woody Halbrook (South) defeated Matt McCullough (North) 6-0.

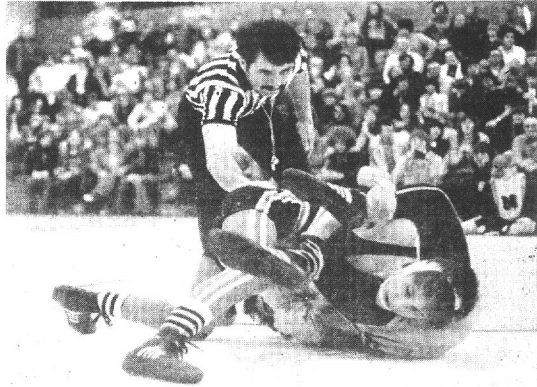

112 — Steve Garland (South) defeated Jim Bledsoe (North) 17-6; 119 — Kevin Page (South) defeated Todd Davis (North) 9-0.

126 — Jim Starling (North) defeated Jim Carmody (South) 3-0; 132 — Charles Taylor (North) defeated Ed Fetter (South) 7-6.

138 — Terry Johnson (North) and Don Hasty (South) drew 5-5; 145 — Dave Whitsell (North) and Brian Gaines (South) drew 6-6.

155 — Dave Harrison (North) defeated Steve Avedisian (South) 4-2; 167 — Brian Wilson (South) pinned Jim Stanton (North) 2:11.

185 — Jerry Patterson (South) defeated Dave Hamilton (North) 2-1; and heavyweight — Jim Barker (North) and Mark Naglich (South) drew 2-2.

NORTH VERSUS SOUTH wrestling competition here Friday. Warrior Jim Caschetta (head in foreground) defeated Steeler Keith Whelan 4-2 in the 98-pound bout to open the meet. GCHS South won 28-15.

Warriors finish at 19-1

Granite City High School South matmen ended their 1974-75 dual-meet wrestling season with a 19-1 record Saturday, defeating McCluer North here 28-14.

The Warrior wrestlers will compete next at Edwardsville this Saturday in the annual Southwestern Conference tournament before preparing for Illinois High School Association district competition.

Results of Saturday's meet (pin indicated by time) were: 98 pounds — Jim Caschetta won 9-2; 105 — Woody Halbrook won 12-2; 112 — Steve Garland lost 6-2.

119 — Kevin Page won 20-2; 126 — Jim Carmody won 1-0; 132 — Glen Moore wrestled to a 4-4 draw; 138 — Don Hasty won 7-0; 145 — Brian Gaines won 5-43; 155 — Steve Avedisian lost 13-4; 167 — Kevin Wilson won 4-2; 185 — Bob Daugherty lost 6-0; and heavyweight — Mark Naglich lost 5-3.

South mat mentor William Schmitt feels this has been one of the best dual meet seasons in many years for his wrestlers.

Kroger announces conservation plan

The Kroger Co. has announced an energy conservation plan to reduce the use of its electricity significantly in its food stores. Charles W. White, Kroger vice-president in the area, with headquarters in St. Louis, estimated the net result of the effort will save a total of more than ten million kilowatt hours.

"The ten million kilowatt hours per year that we hope to save represents enough electrical power to serve 200 homes a year," he said.

"Shoppers will see the impact of this conservation program in reduced lighting, heat, and air conditioning, but the program also will include more complete weatherstripping and many other unobvious measures," White said.

"We are growing increasingly aware of the ever increasing energy costs on our operations. Accordingly, this program is designed to enable us to operate as efficiently as possible in an effort to keep our cost down and obviously to enable us to continue to offer the consumers the lowest grocery prices possible," White said.

All of the above is part of an on-going program of Kroger to conserve both energy and natural resources of our country. The program was instituted early in 1974 when time all of our stores had installed paper balers for the conservation of paper. In 1974 alone, The Kroger Co. placed in the recycling system, 20 million pounds of paper.

Fitness requires exercise

By MICHAEL THARP
Program Director
Tri-City Area YMCA
(Third of four articles)

Exercise is a necessity for life. It should be to some degree or another, a part of every person's daily routine.

Exercise is as necessary for adults as it is for children. Exercise builds stronger bodies, keeps people more mentally alert, makes people feel better and saves lives.

According to the American Heart Association, physical activity may increase heart efficiency, oxygen content in the blood, blood vessel size, efficiency of blood distribution and return, red blood cell mass and blood volume, growth hormone production, and tolerance to stress.

Also, exercise may decrease cholesterol and triglyceride levels, heart rate, blood pressure, vulnerability to heartbeats irregularities, over-reaction by nervous and hormone systems, and strains associated with psychic stress.

Of the nine risk factors in cardiovascular disease—diseases of heart and blood vessels—exercise has a direct or indirect bearing on five out of nine.

One, exercise may reduce high blood pressure.

Two, exercise may reduce cholesterol and triglyceride levels. Three, exercise may reduce nervous tension.

Four, exercise may help someone lose weight. Five, exercise may improve a person's physical condition.

Other than the, straight chemical advantages to exercise, there are a number of psychological advantages.

In the first place, if a person isn't exercising regularly now, starting an exercise program means an investment of time and effort. A decision must be made.

If the decision is at all serious, this generally means a definite change in life-style.

A person who takes his physical condition seriously and invests the time and effort in an exercise program is more likely to watch what he eats. He is more likely to quit smoking, and he is more likely to see his physician on a regular basis to get an accurate picture of his health.

Once started on an exercise program, an individual will find that he sleeps better and doesn't need as much sleep. He'll find that he no longer suffers from the mid-afternoon "blahs."

He'll find he can do more work in a shorter space of time. He'll find that he has extra energy for projects at home.

He'll look better to himself and to others.

In other words, he will feel better and life will become a lot easier and lots more fun.

Man stabbed, in hospital

Kenneth West Jr., 25, of 4200 Division St., was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 11 p.m. Thursday after suffering a stab wound to the left side of his chest near Routes 111 and 162, south of Pontoon Beach.

West said he was at a tavern on Route 162 and left with several other men. He said he got into a car with the men and they drove east toward Route 111.

He said the driver was driving in an unsafe manner and West requested that the driver let him drive. The request was refused. When the car stopped for a stop sign at Route 111, West asked to be let out of the car, he said.

He got out of the car feeling that the driver should not be driving, he reached in the car window and took the keys from the ignition.

The driver asked another man in the car for his knife at which time West said he walked away from the auto. He said the man ran after him, yelled "You don't walk away from me," and swung the knife, plunging it in West's chest.

West said the man then returned to his car and left the scene.

He walked north on Route 111 until a motorist stopped to aid him and gave him a ride home, he related. A relative then took him to the hospital.

Heating with Electric Baseboards

Heat from electric baseboards is being used in many Illinois homes, either as supplemental heat or for an entire home heating system.

Electric baseboards provide radiant and convection heat that warms people directly, like the rays of the sun.

The baseboards are compact, requiring little or no usable living space. They can be installed where heat loss is greatest: under windows and in drafty corners, for instance.

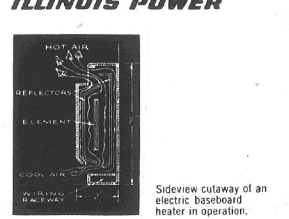

Controlled by individual thermostats, electric baseboard heaters provide a variety of temperature settings in the home. They respond quickly to thermostat control.

For areas with special heating problems, such as breezeways or add-on rooms, there are electric baseboards with a built-in fan to force heat circulation.

In a new home, electric baseboards simplify construction by eliminating ductwork, chimney or flues.

Complete information on all types of electric heat is available without obligation from your Illinois Power Energy Use Advisor. Just call our office.

Patty Dooley 'dream girl'

Delta Zeta Sorority at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, has selected Miss Patty Dooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dooley of Granite City, as "dream girl" of the sorority.

It is the sorority's highest honor and goes to the member whom the rest of the girls consider to have contributed the most to the sorority.

Miss Dooley is the pledge trainer for the sorority. She is a senior, majoring in elementary education-special education at Eastern Illinois.

Experiences in Eastern Europe related; Travelers elect Lynn

Roy Lynn was elected president of Travelers Abroad at its meeting last week at Prather Junior High School.

Named to serve with Lynn in 1975 are: Edmund Firner, vice-president in charge of programs; Mrs. E. L. Ackerman, vice-president in charge of arrangements; Mrs. Grace Range, secretary; and Miss Juliana Hoedebeck, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pape presented the program, giving an illustrated lecture on their trip through the Communist countries of Eastern Europe, visiting such cities as Budapest, Bucharest, Brasov, Moscow, Kiev, Leningrad, Cracow and Warsaw.

Mrs. Pape commented on an incident in Budapest, where "we had to yield the right of way to another group of tourists who rated much higher than Americans—a delegation from North Vietnam."

"We could not leave the airport until the North Vietnamese had left their plane and were safely enroute to their hotel," she said. "Later on while we were visiting a cathedral," Mrs. Pape continued, "we had to sit down and wait patiently until these people had completed their tour and had left the cathedral grounds."

"Three things about Eastern European cities impress most Americans," Mrs. Pape said. Their public squares are far larger than any in the United States; the number of statues in the squares, especially those of Lenin, and that almost all the great cathedrals have been turned into museums with the art treasures remaining there.

In the Soviet Union, the Papes explained, all tourists must sign a statement listing the amount of cash and jewelry in their possession and the number of cameras he is taking out.

Only one camera is permitted per person, they said. Upon leaving the country, the visitor also must list money, jewelry and cameras he is taking out.

Working women in Russia are eligible to retire at age 55 and the men at 60 years. Both males and females receive a pension equal to 75 per cent of their salary, the speakers noted.

Women are allowed three years of maternity leave. Upon the birth of the first child the mother receives a payment of 2,000 rubles, then 80 per cent of her salary for the first six months and 45 per cent of her salary for 2 1/2 years. (11 rubles are equivalent to $1.)

For a second child the mother receives 4,000 rubles at once, followed by 50 rubles per month for three years. Payments for additional children are considerably less, Mrs. Pape said. All medical services in the Soviet Union are free, including abortions, the speakers related.

The young people do not attend church, they noted. Although the city of Leningrad, for example, has 19 functioning churches, including one Baptist and Roman Catholic, a mosque, a synagogue and 15 Russian Orthodox.

Both were impressed by the Moscow subway system which they described as "enormous, immaculately clean, well lighted and beautifully decorated."

The Papes reported enjoying a ride on the Dnieper, visiting art museums and viewing ballet performances.

List winners in pinewood derby

Cub Scout David Lingle was flagged in first place, Jimmy Howard won second, and David Peterson captured third in the annual Pinewood Derby races of Pack 24 held in the Johnson School cafeteria.

Best design award went to Wayne Peterson.

Scouts running in the elimination rounds were: Russell Copper, Lloyd Vaughn, Keith Rowlett, Wayne Peterson, Mike Bowman, John Hergert, Greg Warren, Jim Fletcher, Sam Stevenson, Chris Straub, Roger Turnbough, Scott Thomason, Terry Copeland, Skip Sponeaman, Eddie Glass, Collin Davis, Marty Pully, David Smith, and those boys who placed.

The following awards were presented: Greg Warren and John Hergert, Bobcat; Keith Rowlett, and Marty Pully, Wolf badge and Gold Arrow; David Peterson, David Smith, and Mike Bowman, deniers; Terry Copeland and Russell Copper, assistant denier.

Plans are being made for the Blue and Gold banquet to be held at the February pack meeting.

Race highlights Pack 19 meeting

A pinewood derby race and awards ceremony highlighted the January meeting of Cub Pack 19 held at Washington School last week.

Cubmaster Joe Williams welcomed the group. The colors were posted and the pledge of allegiance was given in unison.

Jack Veizer and Ron Luebben served as race judges. Preliminary winners were Robert Fisher of Den 1; Keith Coakley, Den 2, and Jerry Krug, of the Webelos. The pack champion was Keith Coakley.

An arrow of light ceremony was conducted for Webelos Ricky Walker, who was accepted into Boy Scout Troop 16 by Jack Veizer.

The cubmaster presented a one-year pin for perfect attendance to Terry Mahon and scientist awards to Mike Mahon, Jerry Krug, Mark Dilday and Ricky Walker.

Plans were made for the annual blue and gold banquet on Feb. 24 at the school.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Taxpayer rights explained

A new documentary film explaining to taxpayers their rights in dealing with the Internal Revenue Service is available without charge to local groups and organizations.

Ira S. Loeb, district director of the Internal Revenue for Central and Southern Illinois, said today.

Appearing in the film, together with nine IRS employees and professional talent, is the veteran actor James Whitmore, whose most recent credits include his one-man Will Rogers show on nationwide television.

The 27-minute IRS color film, entitled "Why Me, Tom Krolk?", deals with taxpayer rights concerning audits and appeals, delinquent taxes, processing and confidentiality of tax returns.

The film traces the fortunes of a fictional taxpayer, Tom Krolk, from the moment he receives a tax audit notice from the IRS to the final resolution of his case.

In addition to narrating the film, Whitmore interviews on camera IRS personnel who examine returns, conduct appeals hearings, collect delinquent taxes, provide taxpayer assistance, and supervise the processing of tax returns.

Loeb said the IRS film, which contains an original musical score, includes a segment of a simulated office audit as well as a district conference.

"We are especially anxious to gain a widespread audience for this film," Loeb said, "because we believe it may help dispel the fear many citizens have when called in for a tax audit. The fact that every taxpayer has certain basic rights is underscored in this film," he added.

Loeb noted that "Why Me, Tom Krolk?" is especially suited for showings before community or neighborhood groups, civic and service organizations, and church and fraternal clubs and lodges.

Program chairmen who wish to book "Why Me, Tom Krolk?" should contact the public affairs branch by telephone at 217-525-4123, or by mail at 325 W. Adams Street, Springfield, Ill. 62764.

Boys must wait for invitation

If you're a Granite City High School boy, you will just have to sit by the phone and wait to see if you've got invited to the "Sweetheart Reversal" dance scheduled for Feb. 11 in the South Cafeteria.

"Monarch," a cash band, will furnish the music. A dance contest with prizes will be part of the program.

Chairman Hackney said students from North are welcome.

The dance is being sponsored by the South Student Council and student "ID" cards are required.

THE SCHERMER BULLETIN

You know, it always pays to keep your eyes open. With the rain and all Thursday we got a chance to get out and see some of our chain store competition, and we thought you might be interested in what we found. We noticed women in all the parking lots loading their own cars and getting soaked. People, this simply doesn't happen at Schermer's. Our boys carry your bags to your car and load them for you, rain or shine. How much is that worth on a day like last Thursday? Think about it.

We also saw a sign in a store. CHECK THESE EGG PRICES—LOWEST EGG PRICES IN TOWN. Large eggs were selling for 83¢. Now anyone who read our ad last week knows that we were selling large eggs for 69¢. Project

"On June 28, 1974, the Illinois House of Representatives directed the Illinois Legislative Investigative Commission to investigate the terms of the above lease, the circumstances surrounding its execution, and the benefits to be received by the state... and to report to the 78th General Assembly before July 1, 1974."

"In the subsequent legislative investigation, all of the relevant documents were examined and copied and all persons involved in any aspect of the organization of Three Square Construction Corp., the negotiations of the lease, the purchase of the land, the financing and the construction of the building were interviewed."

"The Illinois Legislative Investigative Commission has now—at great public expense, I am sure—published 600 copies of its findings in a 47-page booklet."

"Presumably, the whole 47-page report will not appear in the newspapers, but I believe the public would be interested in knowing the findings and conclusions of the investigating commission. I would like to quote portions of the report."

"The Commission was unable to find, and does not believe there is, any evidence of wrongdoing, foul play, fraud or any form of malpractice regarding the lease, for reasons that will be hereinafter explained."

"We interviewed state and federal employees who were associated with the case. Without exception, all of them agreed that there is nothing improper with the methods by which the lease was executed."

"We interviewed Philip A. Theis and found no evidence of any wrongdoing. The methods by which he (1) assumed ownership of Three Square Construction Corp., (2) acquired loans from First Granite City Savings and Loan, and (3) replaced Gene Johnson and retained the (E.D.) Moore Construction Co. for the contracting were all legitimate."

"Darrel Stites of the Granite City office of the Bureau of Employment Security and his bureau have now been in their new offices at 1820 Cleveland since late April 1974. I last interviewed Stites on Sept. 25, 1974, to get his own impression of the whole affair."

"Stites said... that he is well satisfied with the facility built by the Three Square Construction Corp. He said that of the alternatives they (the Bureau of Employment Security) had available, the choice they made—to lease the subject premises from Three Square Construction Corp.—turned out to have been the best one."

"We (the investigating commission) do not believe it to be illegitimate in any way."

"Rather, everything points to the fact that all three parties—Three Square Construction Corp., the owner and developer, First Granite City Savings and Loan, the lender, and E.D. Moore Construction Co., the contractor—simply took advantage of the opportunity to make a good business transaction, one which not only benefited themselves but (Millton) Greenstein, who was supervisor of the Real Estate and Procurement Section for the Bureau of Employment Security, worked closely with Darrel Stites on the project and he recalled going from Chicago to Granite City to view various locations with Stites."

"He remembers talking to Thurl C. Jones, with whom Stites had had a temporary lease at 1837 Edison Ave. He said Jones had suggested that the Department of Labor remodel his facilities for use as a permanent location by the Bureau of Employment Security."

"But Greenstein said the remodeling costs would have been prohibitive, that the location itself was unsatisfactory, and had no parking facilities."

"It was Greenstein's opinion that Jones was upset at the prospect of losing a tenant, and that it was Jones who helped to create the adverse publicity surrounding the state's lease with Three Square Construction Corp."

In reference to that lease, Greenstein commented that the rental rate of $1,567 per month, and the square footage charge of $4 (the amount provided in the Three Square lease) were consistent with the Granite City area."

These conclusions, "I'm sure the public realizes that sensational news stories sell newspapers. This does not, however, justify publication of news stories with a reckless indifference to the truth and to the reputation of those involved."

"While those of us who knew the true facts concerning the entire transaction were gratified by the responsibility and integrity shown by the staff of the Granite City Press-Record, we were embarrassed, disgusted and embittered by the irresponsible articles which were published by the others."

Investigate

2 fires in West Granite

Juveniles are believed to have started two fires which damaged a mobile home and an auto which were close to each other in West Granite City Saturday.

At 8:05 p.m. Saturday, firemen were called to the mobile home of Lester Withers, 2618 rear W. 22nd St., and to 2238 Jefferson St., where the auto of Laura Benson was damaged by fire.

Both fires had burned out when firemen arrived.

At the mobile home, a rope was used to tie the rear door open and two boxes and rags, all soaked with gasoline, were set on fire. A plastic cup full of gasoline also was found by the doorway.

Gasoline soaked rags had been set between the front door and the storm door and in the wheel wells of the unit.

The auto sustained about $50 damage when a rag soaked with gasoline was stuffed in the gasoline tank opening and ignited. A burning bible also was placed under the gasoline tank. The tank did not explode.

Investigations are underway in both cases.

Congressman Melvin Price of this district, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, said Friday he has discussed the topic with Senators Adlai Stevenson and Charles Percy of Illinois.

"I'm sure I will have their full support, as well as the whole Illinois Congressional delegation" in seeking federal approval for construction of Columbia-Waterloo airport facilities.

President Gerald Ford has nominated William T. Coleman, a Philadelphia attorney, as the new Transportation secretary.

Com. Price commented: "I'm going to urge the new secretary to process and approve the federal airport plan statement and to give prompt attention to the application of the Airport Authority."

"Refusal to approve it would be definite departure from policy, instead saying that they're not going to support airports of the future."

Robbery charged

Larry Mathias, 22, of 1715 Barton St., was arrested in the 4600 block of Kirkpatrick Homes at 2:40 p.m. Saturday and charged with armed robbery.

He allegedly entered Uncle Charlie's Drive-In, 2610 Nameoki Road, Nov. 13, 1974, gave the waitress $10 for a pizza and when she opened the cash register, he displayed a butcher knife and attempted to rob her, according to police reports.

She reportedly took the $10 in the register, slammed it shut and ran into a back room.

Moments later, a Granite City man entered with $6 in his hand and the robber grabbed the money and fled, it was reported.

Glen Carbon man dies in I-70 crash

Gerald M. Chapman, 23, of Rural Route One, Glen Carbon, was killed at 5:30 a.m. today when his eastbound auto crashed through a retaining wall on Interstate 70, about three-fourths of a mile east of Highway 192 and plummeted downward about 125 feet, landing on Business Route 40 below.

An Illinois State trooper, who was at the scene, said Mr. Chapman's vehicle apparently ran off I-70 between the lanes, damped over a guard rail and crashed through the retaining wall, "leaping about 125 feet."

The auto turned over in its downward plunge and skidded updown across Route 40. I-70 travels above Route 40 at an approximate height of 90 feet at that point, the trooper said.

Mr. Chapman was pronounced dead at the scene by Deputy Coroner Herbert A. Kausky of Collinsville.

The body was taken to an East St. Louis funeral home.

Mathias favors proceeding with a proposed major airport at Columbia-Waterloo, Ill.

As part of its "Agenda for Progress" program for the three-county area, Illinois Metro East has been one of the Southwestern Illinois region's major proponents of development of a new airport.

Pointing to the development of good transportation systems as a "key to insure a strong regional economy well into the next century," Mathias said, "We should settle for nothing less than a first-class airport as part of this overall system."

List tax tips for veterans

The Veterans Administration offers some tax tips for veterans filing their federal income tax returns.

In general, the VA said veterans benefits are exempt from federal income tax, and need not be reported as income. This exemption applies to dividends and proceeds from government life insurance policies but federal estate tax does apply to insurance proceeds.

Interest earned on government life insurance dividends left on deposit or credit with VA is considered income and must be reported on federal income tax returns.

Among major tax exempt veterans benefits are compensation, pension, GI Bill and other educational assistance, including subsistence payments to vocational rehabilitation trainees.

Also exempt are grants to service-disabled veterans eligible for specially adapted homes and cars, and clothing allowances for veterans using prosthetic devices tend to wear out or tear their clothing, VA spokesmen advise.

Did state move too slowly in past on bond-construction programs?

By SUSAN SACHS
Press-Record
Springfield Bureau

Gov. Dan Walker's announcement in late January of a $4 billion-plus program to sell bonds for construction work sent state bureaucrats madly

State Republicans will hear Rumsfeld

Presidential Assistant Donald Rumsfeld will be the keynote speaker at the Illinois Republican Leadership Conference to be held in Chicago on March 15, Illinois GOP Chairman Don W. Adams has announced.

Rumsfeld, former North Atlantic Treaty Organization ambassador and Illinois congressman, will address state Republican leaders at the principal 1975 planning conference.

"This should be the most important statewide Republican event of 1975," Adams said in announcing the meeting.

"GOP leaders throughout Illinois are being invited to plan for building our party with an eye toward 1976, when we will have an excellent chance to capture the governorship and other elective offices," he continued.

"The meeting will follow on the heels of the National Leadership Conference scheduled in Washington the week of March 6-8, at which time the Republican National Committee will be revealing plans for assistance to state Republican organizations."

Adams said Illinois Republican Leaders will be informed of new initiatives started by the State Central Committee in fund raising, organization and leadership.

Student representatives on Public Library staff

By RAY TEVIE
Granite City Librarian

Kim Seybert, a senior at Granite City High School, and Tammy Mertz, a senior at Granite City High School North, have joined the Public Library staff as GCPL student representatives to their respective schools.

In this capacity, they will assist students and faculty in obtaining materials from GCPL, and will be working at GCPL and at their high school resource centers.

North High students and faculty needing GCPL materials or information about GCPL services should contact Tammy Mertz, while South High students and faculty should contact Kim Seybert.

For all your informational needs, telephone or visit the reference librarian. Miss Kampen can assist you, whether you are seeking the answer to a specific question or desiring detailed information on a particular subject.

The telephone number for reference is 876-7477.

GCPL is still missing the January issues of various magazines: "Ladies Home Journal," "Mademoiselle," "National Geographic," "Cosmo," "Reader's Digest," "Business Week," "U.S. News and World Report" and "Consumer Reports" (also the November and December 1974 issues for this periodical).

The staff would appreciate receiving any of those magazines, telephone GCPL and arrangements for pick-up can be made.

NEW ITEMS: Elia Kazan's "The Understudy" moves swiftly from scene to scene—the Broadway stage, an East African safari, a Hollywood scouring for their calculators and notepads—trying to figure out how this massive program could be financed without a tax increase, as Walker says it can.

The program, aimed at putting people back to work and stimulating the state economy, drew immediate fire from state Republicans and the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

Most Democrats, on the other hand, remained silent.

Critics have focused on five issues:

—Can the state actually sell in two or three years that $4.1 billion in bonds—most of them general obligation bonds?

—Can it do this without jeopardizing the top bond rating given by investment companies that makes Illinois bonds attractive and easily sold?

—Can Gov. Walker and his agencies, as well as the building trades, get projects going and people working as quickly as the governor predicts?

—Are those who are hit hardest by recession in Illinois—and by the strangling effects of rising prices—the ones who will benefit from the new largesse of state government?

—Can the state afford to triple its debt service payments with the sale of this massive number of bonds proposed?

Walker points out that Illinois' state-supported debt, which includes indirect debt not associated with general obligation bonds, is lower than that of other comparable industrial states.

Bond authorization, which can be done by a three-fifths vote of the General Assembly under a new provision of the 1970 Constitution, does not affect the rating, he says.

The actual issuance, he adds, can be spread out over several years and tailored to respond to market conditions to secure lowest interest rates.

The state's bond counsel, Chapman and Cutler of Chicago, notes that interest rates have been dropping recently. The market is an emotional thing, affected by a number of factors, a spokesman for the firm said.

But he sees no problem with issuing $300 million to $400 million in bonds as well as the average yearly $250 million, if done responsibly.

The biggest question is: Can the state use all that money in two years—the time left in Walker's first term as governor and the time he allots for many of his building and renovation projects' completion?

Republicans like House Minority Leader Rep. James Washburn, R-Morris, point out that while the legislature has appropriated millions of dollars for various construction funds—for highways, schools and capital development—the governor has either vetoed them or the explanation the money couldn't be spent, or has just let much of the money lapse.

For this fiscal year, 1974-75, ending June 30, for example, the General Assembly appropriated and Walker approved spending of $1.6 billion in bond funds.

So far, the state has spent only $68 million.

More than half of the $4.1 billion Walker is advocating for his basic program is in bonds already authorized by the legislature.

"Why in the worsening economy of 1973 and 1974 did the Administration cut back on bond programs, but today they want more than the imagination can fathom?" Washburn queried in a press release.

"If this program were enacted, in its entirety, tomorrow," he said, it would require a minimum of six months to get the machinery assembled and working.

"By that time, the economy may have already started an upward trend."

GSI earnings up sharply

General Steel Industries, Inc. last week announced earnings of $4,651,000, or $1.85 per share, in 1974 compared with $3,109,000, or $1.23 per share, in 1973. Net sales were $59,494,000 in 1974 compared with $50,373,000 in 1973.

The net income statement for both years includes a tax credit representing partial realization of the company's tax loss carry-forward. Earnings before the tax credit were $2,365,000, or 94 cents per share, in 1974, up from $1,515,000, or 60 cents per share, in 1973.

The announcement was made by W. Ashley Gray Jr., chairman and chief executive officer, and James A. Van Sant, president and chief operating officer. They said GSI gave consideration to conversion to LIFO reporting in 1974 but such a change in inventory accounting was not considered advantageous to GSI under present circumstances.

On Dec. 31, 1974, the backlog of orders for the corporation's five manufacturing units was $30,757,000 compared with $17,300,000 a year earlier. In 1974, $7,590,500 of indebtedness was repaid and at Dec. 31, 1974 debt had been reduced to $16,740,000. Phase out of discontinued operations and continued on schedule and within previous estimates.

Improved operating performance in 1974 reflected the continued success of a program to develop and strengthen divisional management and improve product profitability. Most divisions were aided by a strong demand in capital goods buying which began the second half of 1973 and continued throughout 1974.

Soaring costs of natural gas and petroleum-related products have in some cases seriously hampered division cost control programs. GSI announced in several manufacturing plants the cost of natural gas has risen over 100 per cent in the last quarter of 1974. Where fuel is an important factor in manufacturing, margins have narrowed and future outlooks are complicated by both availability and cost of fuel. At the same time, GSI is in a good position to participate in the increasingly strong efforts to produce fuels from North American sources and to meet the continuing need for expanded and improved pipeline transmission of fuel oil and other materials. Pipeline transportation of high viscosity oil and other fuels is a promising growth area for which GSI has new products now on the market.

GSI's results in the years just ahead will continue to be affected by unusual interest charges and fluctuations in rates resulting from debt associated with the discontinuation of plants.

The manufacturing divisions of General Steel Industries, Inc. provide a wide range of industrial and transportation safety products and services to such major markets as steel, mining, energy, petrochemicals and traffic safety. GSI's corporate headquarters is located at 8400 Midland Boulevard, St. Louis.

Burglaries can be averted

Burglaries of homes in Granite City could be reduced if citizens would take the proper precautions. Officer Glenn Wright of the Granite City police department told the Breakfast Kwanza Club at its Thursday morning meeting at Charlie's Restaurant.

"Most of the 800 burglaries to homes in the city during the past year could have been avoided with a few inexpensive precautions," Wright said. "Persons should check and update their locks. On the back door of my home I have a double tumbler dead bolt lock that has a key on both sides."

A first rate lock costs less than the $50 deduction a victim pays his insurance company when filing a claim.

"I have never met a door I could not kick in. Most door frames are bad, but can be reinforced with steel angle irons that can be painted so they won't affect the looks of the home too much."

"People never should hide an extra key on the outside," Wright said. "There really are only a half a dozen places you can hide a key outside the home."

and the burglars know them all. Be friends with your neighbors and if you have good neighbors you can leave a key with them. You watch your neighbor's house and get them to watch yours."

"People should never hesitate to call the police if they suspect something is wrong or see something out of the ordinary in your area. You aren't bothering the police. They are on the streets anyway and your protection is what we exist. Wright emphasized."

Other points the officer made on prevention of burglaries were: leave a light or two on in the house at night when you go out; cancel all deliveries such as mail and newspapers while you are away; have outside lighting both front and rear; mark your driver's license number on items such as televisions, appliances and radios, and when leaving on vacation let the police know you will be gone. Officers will check the house at least three times every 24 hours, he said.

The club celebrated the birthday of Dr. Thomas Lay with refreshments and a cake. Robert Butler, Granite City, chairman of the St. Louis University drama department, was a guest at the meeting.

Graduate study funds for minority students

Applications for special graduate awards for minority students are being sought by the Graduate School of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, according to Joseph R. Russo, associate dean.

High priority will be given to residents of Southwestern Illinois, Russo said. The awards provide a tax-free stipend of $275 to $300 per month and remission of tuition for the academic year.

"The intent of these special awards is to encourage further education for individuals who, because of their financial situation, do not normally continue beyond the baccalaureate level," the associate dean said.

Russo said the Graduate School anticipates that the awards will aid in the identification and motivation of financially and culturally deprived students and the stimulation of their educational pursuits.

Last year, 20 awards were given. Minority-disadvantaged students are presently being held by degree-seeking students.

in art education, business education, counselor education, educational administration, elementary education, history, instructional technology, mass communications, philosophy, psychology, sociology, speech pathology and theater.

"These minority-disadvantaged graduate awards provide a valuable experience for individuals of the metropolitan area, and directly contribute to increasing the number of skilled and competent individuals to urban development, social involvement and human reconciliation," Russo said.

Applicants must be members of minority groups and be prepared to initiate or continue graduate studies on a full-time basis.

Applications may be secured from the Graduate School, Room 222 of the State General Office Building. Applicants also must file a financial statement for evaluation by the College Scholarship Service, for which there is a $4 fee.

The deadline for receipt of all application material is Feb. 28. Successful applicants will be informed by April 4.

Keeping solvent in a credit card era

The day is coming, speculate some top-notch financiers when only a few oldtimers will remember the feel of gold, cold cash.

Thanks to an increasingly credit-oriented world, a new economic life style has been born which foregoes the exchange of the traditional greenback for the basic necessities of food, lodging and clothing.

The head of the household now tends to "buy on time" or in deferred payments. Thus, as the bills arrive, he simply pays by check-drawing funds from an account in which he's deposited not cash, but his salary check.

The Illinois State Bar Association recommends that each person know the credit laws before being swept up in "credit carditis."

Under Illinois law, a credit card is simply any plate, check, book, card or other credit device—or one of a number of other identifying descriptions—which is issued for the purpose of obtaining property, labor or services for a deferred payment.

Some people complain about receiving unsolicited credit cards through the mail from various companies.

According to the ISBA, the recipient is not chargeable for use of the card as long as he does not use it or authorize its use by another party.

The undesired card should be either destroyed or returned to the sender.

Introduction of "revolving credit" provided yet another area to be defined and regulated by law.

Under this credit arrangement, the lender may, from time to time, make loans or advances to the account of the debtor through the means of drafts, items, orders for the payment of money or evidences of debt signed by the debtor or someone authorized by him.

The lender then bills the debtor on a regular basis.

Under a revolving credit plan, the law provides that the lender may collect interest not in excess of 1 1/2 per cent per month on either the average daily unpaid balance of the principal of the debt during the billing cycle, or of the unpaid balance of the debt on approximately the same day of the billing cycle.

In addition to the interest charge, a lender may also collect a charge of 25 cents for each transaction which a loan or advance is made under the revolving credit.

Instead of this additional charge, an annual fee not exceeding $20 may be made for the privilege of using the credit.

Director is chosen for new drug abuse agency

Gov. Dan Walker last week appointed Thomas B. Kirkpatrick Jr., 32, as executive director of the Illinois Dangerous Drugs Commission.

Kirkpatrick was a fellow at the Drug Abuse Council from 1973 to 1974. It is a private, non-profit research and policy analysis association based in Washington, D.C.

He did part of his research work in London to determine if the British experience with drug abuse treatment had application in the U.S. On his return he published the article, "Answers to Drug Problems in England."

Last year, Kirkpatrick was named director of criminal justice services for the Drug Abuse Council.

An attorney, he established and recruited the staff for the Chicago Regional Office of the Justice Department's Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA). He was chief of operations of the LEAA Chicago Regional Office until 1972, when he entered the private practice of law.

An informal search committee composed of Dr. Lefroy P. Levitt, director of the Department of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities, Jack Foster, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, and Wayne A. Kerstetter, superintendent of the Illinois Bureau of Investigation, recommended Kirkpatrick to the governor to be executive director of the new commission.

Kirkpatrick was born in Decatur and graduated from the University of Illinois in 1964 with honors. He received his law degree (juris doctor) from the University of Illinois College of Law in 1966 and the master of laws degree from Northwestern University School of Law in 1969.

While studying law, Kirkpatrick gained first-hand law enforcement experience as a deputy sheriff in Peoria County and later as legal advisor to the police departments in St. Louis and Charlotte, N. C. He also served as legal advisor and special investigator for the Arlington Heights and other northwest suburban (Chicago) police departments.

He has been an instructor in law enforcement programs at three colleges in North Carolina. While in London, Kirkpatrick attended the Institute on Crime, Justice and Heroin at American University. He is the author of the American Bank Association's "Bank Protection Manual," a "Drug Abuse Council pamphlet on 'The Role of the Prosecutor in Drug Enforcement'" and other published articles.

Kirkpatrick will assume his new duties full-time March 1 at a salary of $32,000.

The Dangerous Drugs Commission was established by the General Assembly last year to administer federal and state programs combating drug abuse. The statute designates the director of the Department of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities as the commission's chairman. The commission administers a $5.87 million budget for the current fiscal year, mostly for treatment at community drug abuse clinics.

Happy news abounds along with the inevitable sad events

Newspapers often are urged to present more good news and less bad news. Thursday's issue included some sad tidings but was brim-full of positive news developments. Happy articles included:

Nuclear medicine at St. Elizabeth Hospital is being expanded. Priorities have been set for a dozen Quad City area construction and improvement programs. Grade school pupils are aiding the animal shelter. SIUE nursing school graduates rank ahead of the graduates of other nursing schools in Illinois.

Federal reaction is being awaited after the state's decision to participate in a Wood River pilot project to test conversion of high-sulfur coal to electricity. Construction of a levee district garage in Madison County is being proposed.

Laclede Steel Co. earnings are up and the regular dividend is being increased by 50 per cent. Railway income has risen. Madison County jail bond issue funds are being invested at a profit. Apex Oil Co. in Granite City has completed construction of a new 1,600-square-foot boiler building and loading racks at the Tri-City Regional Port.

Jennison-Wright Corp. here has completed a 4,800-square-foot expansion. Lipsett Steel Co. has added a $124,000 metal processing building to increase its local operations. Metal Services, Inc., has doubled its production capacity in Madison.

Nineteen seventy-four was a record sales-earning year for National Steel Corp. A loan fund has been created for music students. People in a variety of posts have been honored.

The Madison-Venice Rotary Club has achieved its 50th anniversary goal of 50 active members. Federal manpower funds will expand Madison County job opportunities. Lots of couples plan to be married, and a party for engaged girls will be held Feb. 25. And observance of International Women's Year has begun.

A period of time that includes so many constructive activities seems worthy of recognition. And, best of all, it wasn't a particularly unusual occasion.

We happily present this kind of happy news every Monday and Thursday, every week.

Aid rolls show this county is faring better than the state

The scope of public welfare services in this region and state is evident from records made available last week by James Trainor, acting director of the Illinois Department of Public Aid, as he toured aid offices in Southwest Illinois.

Madison County is fortunate in that only 7.8 per cent of its residents receive public aid, compared to 9.2 per cent statewide and a whopping 19.4 per cent in neighboring St. Clair County.

Those being aided in November numbered 8,663 cases and 19,944 persons in this county. 21,767 cases affecting 55,826 people in St. Clair, and 1,028,971 persons in Illinois.

Biggest categories are aid to families with dependent children, 14,687 persons in Madison County, 43,130 in St. Clair and 752,462 statewide, and medical assistance non-grant, 2,064, 3,346 and 162,349.

The state program also includes general assistance, 1,419 persons in this county, 3,561 in St. Clair and 75,174 in Illinois, and aid to aged, blind and disabled, 1,794, 3,789 and 38,886.

Continued vigilance seems appropriate to keep such massive expenditures focused on those who are most deserving, but unquestionably the program serves a vital function for the nine Illinoisans out of 100 who are blind and disabled, or temporary health or financial problems beyond their power to solve.

To the Editor:

The U. S. Department of Agriculture policy since October has been to monitor and, if necessary, cancel sales of U. S. agricultural commodities to foreign buyers.

Because of this position and other factors, such as declining livestock numbers and changing economies around the world, soybean prices have fallen about $3 per bushel since last fall's peak.

The Land of Lincoln Soybean Association recognizes the need for an adequate supply of soybeans for domestic use.

However, with the prospects of near-record production projected in 1975, and the need to earn additional foreign dollars to offset deficits in balance of payments, we are urging the U. S. Department of Agriculture to relax its export restrictions and encourage foreign buyers to purchase more U. S. soybeans and grains.

Many farmers placed their soybeans for export in anticipation of higher prices, based on projections by USDA and others.

Now, because of the Department of Agriculture monitoring and "jamboning" prices have fallen sharply.

At the same time, the Department of Agriculture is actively encouraging farmers to engage in all-out production.

While soybean farmers neither ask for nor solicit government assistance, neither do they accept governmental action designed to force them to produce at a loss, or governmental action which arbitrarily restricts a part of the market for their soybean crop.

At a time when the U. S. economy needs to generate foreign income to offset the cost of importing foreign petroleum, it does not make sense for our government to drive prices lower, thus reducing the opportunity of U. S. and Illinois soybean farmers to produce at a profit.

Grain fed to livestock is defended

To the Editor:

A few months back when U. S. Senator Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota suggested that if Americans would eat less hamburger it would make more food available for the starving of the world.

Well, we remember it well, for it seemed to touch off a wave of nonsensical, simplistic statements by others in and out of government—just a pretty much along the same line.

They would have the public believe that reducing meat consumption by just a little bit would make a lot of grain available for human food instead of livestock feed.

Now, we're not about to suggest that some of us couldn't trim our waistline a bit by eating less.

But to say that by so doing we would be doing a humanitarian deed just wouldn't be truthful.

The eat-less-meat advocates just don't know their agriculture, the good senator notwithstanding.

The growing demand for food caused by population growth and the desire to upgrade diets requires that maximum efficiency and the greatest production of food be achieved.

The efforts being made to persuade more Americans to consume less meat and more gain in their diet shouldn't be accepted without a close look at the facts.

In the United States, there are 600 million acres of land that, for various reasons, are not tillable and can be used only in the production of grass.

This huge acreage of grass must be fully utilized in order to attain maximum production of food in America.

After all, forage produced on these lands cannot be used directly for human consumption. But it can be used effectively by the cattle and sheep that become steaks and chops.

In order to fully utilize the great amount of forage grown on these lands, the grazing of ruminant animals followed by a reasonable period of grain feeding is desirable.

The period of grain feeding improves quality, adds to quantity, and makes possible the salvage meat feeds that otherwise would be wasted. This makes a further significant contribution to the total food supply.

Grain feeding also helps the yearly distribution of the meat supply, because grass production is seasonal.

When farmers hear the eat-less-meat boys make their pitch to the unsuspecting public, they can't help but get a little "hot under the collar."

Farmers know, and they want the public to know, that when all aspects of the production of food are considered, the feeding of grain to livestock, both efficient and desirable and will add to the total supply of high quality food.

'Freedom' in Philippines

Editor & Publisher magazine—The Philippines, which once boasted of having a completely free press and observance of civil liberties, has suffered a complete about-face under the dictatorial regime of President Marcos.

Freedom of the press has disappeared and once-free newspapers are confiscated or closed.

The most celebrated case is that of Eugenio Lopez Jr., former publisher of the Manila Chronicle daily newspaper, one of the most widely read newspapers in the country, was also closed.

The total assets of these three companies are in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

In the course of the past two years, all these corporations have fallen into the hands of private individuals, individuals who are known to be close associates of Mr. and Mrs. Marcos and who have been branded by more knowledgeable persons as the "front men," that is to say, individuals who are holding in their names properties on behalf of the Marcos family.

Eugenio Lopez Sr., now living in San Francisco, gave this brief version in an interview with the Philippines News, published in that city:

"When President Marcos declared martial law September 1972, all of our family's major business enterprises were either taken over or ordered closed by the Philippine government."

"The Manila Electric Company (Meco), which supplies electricity to Manila and suburban areas, continued to operate under the supervision of appointed military personnel."

"The ABS-CBN corporation, the largest broadcasting company in the Philippines, owning and operating six television stations and 21 radio stations, was ordered to close all its facilities. The Manila Chronicle daily newspaper, one of the most widely read newspapers in the country, was also closed."

The total assets of these three companies are in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

In the course of the past two years, all these corporations have fallen into the hands of private individuals, individuals who are known to be close associates of Mr. and Mrs. Marcos and who have been branded by more knowledgeable persons as the "front men," that is to say, individuals who are holding in their names properties on behalf of the Marcos family.

"Most of the uninformed public assumed that 'the wealthy Lopez family sold their multimillion dollar business enterprises to the Philippine government in order to liquidate their assets and get their cash out of the Philippines.'"

"This impression was strengthened by the publicity given to the Philippine government to the 'sale' of the Manila Electric Co. Company to learn the truth. The Lopez family's properties were not sold to the Philippine government, in fact they have not been sold to anyone."

"Our properties were given to the Marcos family through its own owned and/or operated 'front men' through some 'artificial agreements' and some of them have been taken over by the Philippine government, legal or illegal."

The Lopez family has maintained its silence for two years in exchange for the life and freedom of Lopez Jr. and the safety of other members of the family, according to Lopez Sr.

"Farmers and the cooperatives they have organized to serve them depend on reliable quality rail service for the distribution of goods to and from the farm," Graves said.

On another topic, Illinois Director of Agriculture Robert "Bud" Williams last week said American farmers have a "right to know" how officials in Washington make economic decisions which he said are "knocking the pins out from under the agricultural economy."

Williams made the remarks in a speech to the Mississippi Valley Farm Equipment Dealers Association at St. Louis.

He challenged the President's economic advisors to come to the farm belt and see what is actually happening in agriculture. He said farmers are caught in a cost-price squeeze that is "basically the fault of the federal government."

Williams said the effective embargo which had been placed on the export of grains had already undermined the market, as price controls had undermined the red meat producing industries last year.

He commented that if the administration plan for a heavy import duty on foreign grain is put into effect, the cost of farming will be raised significantly.

"Farmers won't be able to afford the input for maximum production, Williams said.

"In the long run, that just doesn't make much sense. It will end up being inflationary in both the processing and retailing end of agriculture; it will provide no relief for the housewife, and it will probably end up hitting her harder at the supermarket than she already has."

"The farmers in this country

Winter Wonderland Trains, fertilizer and the economy topics of farmers

By BILL WINTER
The eyes of the state will be on Madison County Feb. 27 when the American Dairy Association of Illinois holds its annual meeting. Location of the gathering will be the Sunset Hill Holiday Inn on Route 157.

This fact and two Farm letters on this page today focus attention on the general subject of farming and on topics of current concern to farmers.

One of the leading agricultural worries in Illinois these days relates to the extent to which there will be access to railroads for a variety of crops.

This state continues to be No. 1 in America in agricultural production and many of its areas have enjoyed good access to trains.

Rail service to the agricultural community of the Midwest is due for some changes now that the U.S. Supreme Court has upheld the constitutionality of the Rail Reorganization Act of 1973.

The act calls for the U.S. Railway Association to issue a preliminary rail system plan for 17 states in the northeastern and midwestern part of the nation, including Illinois. That plan, originally due in November, is expected Feb. 26.

"It will tell us in detail what lines will be revitalized and upgraded, and those subject to possible immediate abandonment," the state's Robert Graves, who is traffic director for FS Services, Inc., the Illinois Agricultural Association and the Illinois Grain Corp.

"Deadline for the final system plan is July 26 and from there it goes to Congress for review."

"If Congress chooses not to act on the measure, it takes effect Sept. 24," he said.

"However, Congress may choose to revise and return the measure to the railroad association for further study. The plan would later be returned again to Congress for final approval," Graves said.

"We are anticipating that a lot of work during this year will be centered on the impact of the proposed rail reorganization in Illinois."

"We will be compiling the results of a rail service survey conducted among our member companies in the state and using it as a guide."

"The mechanics of rail abandonments are carried in the reorganization act. A notice of discontinuance must be issued by Oct. 25, 1975. Service will be discontinued by Oct. 23, 1975, and abandonments permitted by April 21, 1976."

On the general grounds, we have been fighting the proposed rail abandonments for some time because of the severe economic impact they would have on the agricultural community."

"Farmers and the cooperatives they have organized to serve them depend on reliable quality rail service for the distribution of goods to and from the farm," Graves said.

On another topic, Illinois Director of Agriculture Robert "Bud" Williams last week said American farmers have a "right to know" how officials in Washington make economic decisions which he said are "knocking the pins out from under the agricultural economy."

Williams made the remarks in a speech to the Mississippi Valley Farm Equipment Dealers Association at St. Louis.

"In the long run, that just doesn't make much sense. It will end up being inflationary in both the processing and retailing end of agriculture; it will provide no relief for the housewife, and it will probably end up hitting her harder at the supermarket than she already has."

"The farmers in this country not only have a right to know what the long range economic plans of the government are for agriculture, they have to know in order to plan this year's crop.

"If the effective embargo on exports is going to be sustained so the price of grain is artificially forced down, rather than being determined by a free market, the farmer has to know that."

"If there is going to be an import duty on oil to artificially raise the price of fertilizers, pesticides, fuel and everything else used to grow his crop, the farmer has to know that."

"The farmer has to know these things to make a determination as to how much to cut back on production inputs so he has enough money to stay in business," Williams asserted.

As a result of administrative policies, the farmer's products are not worth what they used to be.

"Now he doesn't have the money to get the things he would otherwise buy and thus stimulate the economy."

"First, he decided not to buy that new car; next it will be the pickup truck, and then the corn planter and possibly even the combine."

"Every time he is forced into deciding not to buy, there is that much less work and thereby fewer jobs in the automobile and agriculture-related industries."

"Just the farmer, but everyone, has the right to know what the administration plans to do next to the people who grow the food."

"For a long time now, the government has claimed that its policy was to get out of and away from agriculture as much as possible."

"The fact is that with its use of what was one of the healthiest segments of the economy as a poorly used economic tool, government is more in agriculture than ever."

"Instead of improving the general condition of the economy, the government is spreading economic misery on the agricultural community."

On still another subject, Williams has urged egg producers, egg graders, hatcherymen, inspectors and others interested in egg quality to take note of a Feb. 19-20 National Egg Quality and Grading School at Urbana.

Jointly sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer Marketing Service, the University of Illinois and the Illinois Department of Agriculture, the short course will stress practical aspects of laboratory sessions on egg quality determination and aspects of production and processing that affect quality.

Applications for admission are being submitted by Feb. 12 to S. F. Riden, Poultry Extension Specialist, 321 Mumford Hall, University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill. 61801.

A final current note relates to a swine seminar also arranged by the University of Illinois. It will be held Feb. 13 at Augustine's Restaurant, Belleville, and all Madison County swine producers are being urged to attend.

With the dramatic change in commercial fertilizer costs, the fertility value of manure again is becoming a subject of interest. Previously, main emphasis was on economical disposal methods.

Not coincidentally, the swine seminar will include discussion of fertilizer and related storage, treatment and handling methods to avoid the 20-30 per cent nutrient loss that otherwise can occur.

Williams said the effective embargo which had been placed on the export of grains had already undermined the market, as price controls had undermined the red meat producing industries last year.

He commented that if the administration plan for a heavy import duty on foreign grain is put into effect, the cost of farming will be raised significantly.

"Farmers won't be able to afford the input for maximum production, Williams said.

"In the long run, that just doesn't make much sense. It will end up being inflationary in both the processing and retailing end of agriculture; it will provide no relief for the housewife, and it will probably end up hitting her harder at the supermarket than she already has."

Stevenson unhappy with FBI

By LESTER BELL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson, D-Ill., who came under Army domestic surveillance in 1969 and 1970, is demanding a "full report" from the Federal Bureau of Investigation on a file reportedly kept on him.

The FBI under J. Edgar Hoover compiled files containing information on the personal lives of congressmen and congresswomen, gathering personal information on Stevenson, among others in Capitol Hill.

An aide to Stevenson said the senator is asking FBI Director Clarence J. Kelley for a report or evaluation on any files it has on him.

"The police state of the FBI, CIA and military intelligence have no place in a free society," Stevenson declared in a statement.

"Citizens, no matter how innocent, are defenseless against such abuses by the government."

"The Congress must take action to protect the rights of all citizens," Stevenson continued.

"I will ask the director of the FBI for a full report on all such activity and, if in fact there is a file on me, for an evaluation of it," the senator said.

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., who was singled out for a White House "blasting" campaign in the fall of 1969 for his opposition to some of President Nixon's positions, was not mentioned in the speculation on FBI files.

An aide to Percy said in response to a query, "The FBI has not checked him—not to our knowledge."

Stevenson and Percy apparently were selected for special attention about the same time a few years ago.

A former Army intelligence agent, John M. O'Brien, in February 1971 told Sen. R. A. Ervin's Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights that the 113th Military Intelligence Group in Evanston, Ill., spied upon and collected information about Stevenson when he was Illinois state treasurer in 1969 and 1970.

O'Brien disputed Army denials of domestic surveillance on 800 civilian and activist organizations.

O'Brien testified that Stevenson's file was begun in late September 1969 and it contained at various times between five and 20 items.

Percy's experience was somewhat different. The Illinois Republican learned in November 1973 from Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., of the Senate Watergate Committee that he was one of three senators selected as special targets because of "consistent opposition" to President Nixon's policies.

H. R. Haldeman, former White House chief of staff, ordered administration aides in the fall of 1969 to "blast" Percy and Charles E. Goodell of New York and Charles McC. Mathias Jr. of Maryland in a mail, wire and phone campaign for their consistent opposition to the President on everything he is trying to do for the country."

Stevenson, reacting to the disclosure of Army spying, urged Congress to keep a sharp eye on the Army's domestic surveillance because it appeared to him that Senate hearings had not cleared the military could not police itself.

"First, the Army denied ever snooping on citizens," Stevenson told the Women's National Democratic Club of Washington.

"Then they said they would stop it."

"First they said there was no dossier on Stevenson. Now they say there was, but it was full of newspaper clippings."

New nightclub opens Feb. 11

Rico's II, a new nightclub in the rear of the former Biederman's building at 3675
Nameoki Road, will open
Tuesday, Feb. 11, Frank Geoppo, owner, announced today.

Geoppo, who also is a partner in Augustine's Restaurant, Belleville, said the new nightclub will seat 400 persons. There will not be food service.

A five-piece band from California, The Flying "A" Band has been booked for the nightclub's opening, he said.

Geoppo described the decor of the new club as very modern, plush and extremely colorful.
He said the room will have 100 tables with four chairs of different colors around each table.

The club uses the rear half of the Biederman's building. No plans have been made for the front half. The entry is at the rear (west side) of the building.

Live music and dancing will be featured six nights per week with the bands starting at 9 p.m.
The nightclub will be closed
Mondays. No decision has yet been made on an opening time, Geoppo said. Persons under 19 years-of-age will not be admitted, he added.
